FIREMEN AND FRAT MEN TO SEEK M-D FUND

The Gettysburg Fire Department and Kappa Delta Rho Fraternity are scheduled to make the annual door-to-door canvass locally for funds for Muscular Dystrophy Wednesday night, Chairman Herbert Bowling announced today. Other members of his committee are Martin Crabill and William DeHaas.

Members of the fire department and fraternity will join forces starting about 6:30 o'clock Wednesday evening to tour the town in the annual "one night stand" to seek donations for the Muscular Dystrophy Association of America. Where no one is at home envelopes will be left to permit the residents to donate if they so desire.

About 100 coin collecting boxes have been placed so far in various business places through the town and letters have been sent individuals and organizations asking donations.

Normally about $1,000 is raised for the charity through the firemen's campaign.

MONEY FOR RESEARCH

Jerry Lewis and Mrs. Lou Gehrig are national chairmen for the campaign. Mrs. Gehrig's husband was one of the most famed of those who had been stricken by the disease.

Most of the money raised through the Muscular Dystrophy drives goes into research into the causes of the disease. A chronic illness which progressively destroys muscle tissue, disabling the victims and ultimately rendering them completely helpless, muscular dystrophy cannot be cured at present because neither the cause of the disease nor a completely effective treatment has yet been discovered. It strikes, regardless of age, sex or race although the greatest majority of its victims are children. As far as is known it cannot be transmitted from one person to another.

Muscular Dystrophy Association noted that the disease itself is not directly fatal. It causes the person suffering from it to waste away to where even a simple ailment, such as a cold, leads to death.

244 Farms In County Signed For Wheat Plan

As of Friday 244 farms in Adams County had been signed to take part in the 1962 wheat stabilization program, J. Glen Miller, office manager of the Adams County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation office, said today. The signed applications call for the diversion of 1,811 acres. For the farms signed up, possible advance payments under provisions permitting about half of the payments to be made this fall during sign-up period come to about $21,445. Of this amount, $19,113 in cashable sight drafts had been issued to participating farmers.

REDUCE ACREAGE

The 1962 wheat stabilization program, which was approved in a referendum by producers in August, requires a mandatory reduction of 10 per cent from acreage allotments established on the basis of the former minimum national allotment of 55 million acres. Provision is also made for up to an additional 30 per cent voluntary reduction with special provisions for small farms, permitting up to 10 acres reduction in line with the farm's wheat acreage history. Payments are made to producers who divert acreage under the program to an approved conserving use.

Producers who take part in the program will be able to market their production without marketing quota penalties. Price support at a national average level of $2 per bushel will also be available to such producers.

Miller urges farmers who produce winter wheat to sign up under the 1962 wheat stabilization program. He emphasized that participation is not automatic. The producer must sign an application to take part in the wheat stabilization program before December 1, 1961.

Find Gasoline Can In Area Where Rockefeller Started Swimming, Disappeared

HOLLANDIA, Dutch New Guinea (AP)—A Dutch ship found a gasoline can today in the area where Michael Rockefeller disappeared. It was not determined whether it was one of the two cans used as a makeshift raft by the New York governor's son.

The Dutch royal navy mapping vessel Snellius taking part in the search reported finding the can 20 miles north of Frederik Hendrik Island.

This island is south of the area of Setj where young Rockefeller set out to swim ashore after his native boat capsized just a week ago.

Rockefeller in attempting the 3 1/2-mile journey through shark-infested waters had fixed together an empty jerry can and the gasoline tank of an outboard motor as a makeshift float.

Hope of finding the young millionaire-explorer alive is fading, but a Dutch official says there still was an even chance he succeeded in reaching shore and was somewhere in the jungle wilderness.

"We think there is a 50-50 chance he made it to shore," said F. R. J. Elbrink, the Dutch commissioner for southern New Guinea who is leading the search.

Gov. Nelson Rockefeller, who flew here to help in the hunt, had reportedly planned to return Sunday to Hollandia, the capital of Dutch New Guinea, and then start back to New York.

The search will continue, however.

Santa Arrives For Holidays

Santa Claus arrived in Gettysburg Friday night and after the formal turning on of lights made himself "at home" to the children of the community in "Santa's Shanty" on Lincoln Square. From 7:30 to 10 o'clock hundreds of children crowded into the "Shanty" to tell Santa of their desires for Christmas and received a gift. Among the youngsters who surrounded Santa during the evening were Freddie Wilson, whose right eye can be seen at the upper left of the picture; Gregory Knox, Matt Dickert, Susan Knox, who was on Santa's lap; Kathy Kramias, John Lett and Debbie Schott who must have thought her smaller sister, Laurie, was about to say the wrong thing to Santa—or the photographer. Santa will be "at home" in the shanty again this afternoon and evening. (Times photo)

ONLY 13 FOREST FIRES IN AREA; BEST RECORD

1961 promises to be the best year for forest fire prevention in the Commonwealth, according to a report issued by the Department of Forests and Waters. Among the leading districts is District 1, which includes York, Adams, Cumberland and part of Franklin Counties.

The state records show a total of 394 fires for the year, contrasted with the best previous year, 1956, when Penn's woods saw 559 fires. These fires in 1961 have consumed 2,375 acres of forests as compared to the annual low of 6,940 acres in 1956.

District 1 has had only 13 fires in 1961 that burned the low total of 27 acres of timberland.

District Forester William Vanidestine reports the conditions have improved with the recent rains and that the western part of the district had about three inches of snow over the weekend.

Vanidestine said there have been no fires in the district in the past week and the rain and snow will prove of great help in the event any crop up. He said the leaves and roots will now be wet and thus retard the rapid spread of fire that threatened during the dry spell in September and October.

The forester reminded motorists and hunters that danger still exists, however, and that caution should always be exercised with fire in the woodlands.

Santa Arrives Friday; Turns On Xmas Lights; Opens "Shanty"

More than 1,500, in a ratio of two-thirds children and one-third adults, jammed the first block of Baltimore St. and Lincoln Square Friday evening for the arrival of Santa Claus in Gettysburg.

Accompanied by the Gettysburg High School Band under the direction of Robert Zeigler, by the police car, and the firemen's service truck, Santa arrived riding atop one of the fire department's big Mack engines.

His trip was a triumph all the way from the high school. Children and adults lined the sidewalks and then massed on Lincoln Square and first block of Baltimore St. GREETED BY MAYOR

The entourage circled the square and then the service truck pulled up in front of the Plaza Restaurant to provide a platform for the official welcome of Santa to town.

Santa descended from the Mack to the service truck but it took a few minutes before Mayor Wilbur L. Plank could officially extend the formal greeting. A half hundred or more tiny tots lifted by their parents had to shake hands with Santa first.

The band, which had played "Santa Claus Is Coming to Town" all the way down Baltimore St. played a medley of Christmas carols. Then Mayor Plank extended the official greetings of the borough to Santa and expressed the hope that Santa had his toy factories working overtime to provide enough gifts because Gettysburg area children had been the best during the last year they had ever been.

Assisted by Ralph K. Will, chairman of the Retail Merchants Association Christmas decoration committee, and Mayor Plank, Santa descended from the fire truck and threw the switch which for the first time, and amid the "oohs" of delight from the crowd, illuminated the town's Christmas lights.

RETURNING TODAY

Santa, aided by borough police and members of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, made his way like a Pied Piper surrounded by children, to Santa's Shanty to be "at home" for the youngsters. Children, many accompanied by parents, lined up for a block from the Shanty and it was 10 o'clock before Santa could say good night to the last child and close the Shanty.

Under Junior Chamber of Commerce sponsorship, Santa is scheduled to return to his Shanty this afternoon and evening and the following Friday nights and Saturdays until two weeks before Christmas after which he will be nightly in the Shanty.

Children were reminded that, if they put a letter to Santa in the mail box on the front of Santa's Shanty and sign their name and address to the letter, they will receive an answer from Santa before Christmas.

NEWSPAPER AT GHS WINS 1ST PLACE HONORS

The Maroon and White, Gettysburg High School's monthly newspaper, has been rated as a "first place" publication in the 1961 contest sponsored by the Pennsylvania School Press Association.

The Maroon and White earned 930 points, missing a Keystone award by 45 points. However, the paper received 87 more points than last year when it received a second-place rating.

The judge who scored the Gettysburg High School paper commented: "A tremendous job considering the size of the school, number of issues and size of each issue." He also said, "The paper could easily be worth a Keystone, if . . ." and then listed suggestions for improving the paper.

ONE OF FIVE

School publications were entered and judged according to the enrollment classification. There were no Keystone awards given to papers in the same classification as the Maroon and White, but there were five papers to receive the first-place rating.

Evaluation of publications entering the contest was based on make-up, typography and printing, writing and editing, editorials, features, sports, headlines, advertisements and general considerations.

The Maroon and White rated as a first-place paper in the 1961 Quill and Scroll critical service and as All-American in the 1961 National Scholastic Press Association critical service.

The local newspaper is published monthly by the students of Gettysburg High School under the supervision of Mrs. Margaret Deitz, adviser. Each edition is printed by The Times and News Publishing Company.

George W. Hull, 67, Green Springs, Hanover R. 5, was fatally injured at 1:30 o'clock this morning when his car was struck by another auto near the Bethlehem Quarries while he was enroute home from work at a Hanover garage.

State police said Hull died in the Hanover Hospital 45 minutes after the accident. His death was caused by a compound fracture of the skull, according to the York County coroner.

The driver of the other vehicle, Albert P. Laughman Jr., 29, Hanover R. 5, was charged with involuntary manslaughter before Justice of the Peace Robert P. Snyder here and posted $1,000 bail to appear for a hearing Tuesday.

At the time, police said, Laughman was driving to Hanover and Hull, who had been employed for the last 22 years as the night custodian at the Snyder Sales and Service, was enroute home from his employment.

Both men were alone in their vehicles. Police said Laughman's car, headed south, sideswiped the northbound Hull auto. The accident demolished both Laughman's 1956 Ford and Hull's 1947 Plymouth. The roof and windshield of Hull's car were smashed down on Hull's head, police said, causing the injury which led to his death.

HOLIDAY'S DEATH TOLL KEEPS RISING

Traffic 220

Total 262

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Traffic deaths on the nation's streets and highways climbed relentlessly today as the four-day Thanksgiving holiday weekend entered its third day.

Traffic deaths totaled 220 since the period began at 6 p.m. local time Wednesday. Fires have taken at least 22 lives and 40 others have died in miscellaneous accidents.

Driving was made hazardous in Oregon and northern California by rain and heavy snow and in New York State and New England by rain and snow showers. Elsewhere most roads were in good driving condition.

442 LAST YEAR

The 102-hour holiday period, for tabulating purposes, ends at midnight Sunday.

The National Safety Council did not make an estimate of traffic fatalities for the four-day period, but it said traffic deaths during a nonholiday weekend of the same length would total 450 at this time of year.

A survey by The Associated Press during a 102-hour nonholiday weekend showed 462 traffic deaths, 37 killed in fires and 106 fatalities in miscellaneous mishaps for an overall total of 605. The survey covered the period from 6 p.m. Wednesday, Nov. 8, to midnight Sunday, Nov. 12.

During the 1960 Thanksgiving weekend there were 442 traffic deaths, 51 killed in fires and 115 fatalities in miscellaneous mishaps for a total of 608.

The record traffic death toll for a holiday weekend is 706, set in the four-day Christmas period in 1956.

LIBRARY FACES ACTION BY D.A.

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Dist. Atty. James C. Crumlish Jr. says he may take action against the Free Library of Philadelphia if it does not remove from its general circulation 86 copies of Henry Miller's "Tropic of Cancer."

The action was taken on a petition by the D.A.'s office, and aimed specifically at book stores. Crumlish had said anyone selling the book placed himself liable to arrest.

"Now I plan the same action against the Free Library. I hope they will remove the book from their shelves voluntarily. If they do not comply with this request I will have to consult other authorities and see what my next step will be."

The library's 86 copies are distributed among 33 branches. There are reportedly 24 persons on the waiting list at the main branch waiting a chance to read one of 11 copies circulated there.

BILLIONAIRE DIES OF CANCER
STOCKHOLM (AP)—Axel Leonard Wenner-Gren, a Swedish farm boy whose super-salesmanship helped him to amass one of the world's biggest fortunes, died Friday of cancer. He was 90.

The U.S. government estimated his personal wealth at $1 billion several years ago, but Wenner-Gren repeatedly declined to offer an estimate himself.

"All that is required to make a million dollars is hard work, self-discipline and common sense," he once said.

He died at the Red Cross hospital here where his American-born wife, the former Marguerite Gauntier, was reported under treatment for an illness of an undisclosed nature.

An operation earlier revealed that the Swedish industrialist and philanthropist was suffering from a stomach tumor that had spread to the liver. He had been under treatment for about a month. The couple had no children.

Finns Postpone Talks With Reds

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet Union has acceded to Finnish President Urho Kekkonen's request to postpone military talks which the Soviets had suggested to deal with what the Kremlin called a war danger in the Baltic, Finnish sources said today.

The decision will be announced simultaneously during the day in Helsinki and Moscow, the sources said.

Kekkonen returned to Moscow today after a conference with Soviet Premier Khrushchev in the Siberian City of Novosibirsk.

The Finnish president had gone to the Soviet Union to see Khrushchev after Moscow proposed the military talks Oct. 30.

A Finnish official said Kekkonen told Khrushchev at their meeting Friday that such consultations would provoke greater tension in the Baltic at this time.

Kekkonen agreed, at Khrushchev's request, to keep a watchful eye on developments in the Baltic with a view to joint consultations with the Soviets at any alarming development.

SAY TRUJILLOS TOOK WEALTH FROM BANKS

By ROBERT BERRELLEZ

SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic (AP)—Reports of multi-million-dollar bank withdrawals by exiled Trujillos stirred up more controversy today.

The anti-Trujillo radio station Voz del Tropic charged that Gen. Jose Arizmendi Trujillo, a brother of the late dictator, withdrew $2 million from the state-owned Bank of Reserves before flying to the United States Monday. Other sources claimed he took $7 million.

The station urged that the government freeze all bank accounts of the Trujillo family members who were ordered expelled by Balaguer last Sunday.

Voz del Tropic contended that the Dominican peso—officially valued at $1—had skidded to a rate of three cents to the peso on the international market because of low foreign exchange holdings.

The capital took a breather from demonstrations after two days of frenzied disturbances and mob violence which prompted a dusk-to-dawn curfew.

ASKS FREEDOM FOR CAGE FIXER

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The wife of a man convicted of trying to bribe college basketball players has appealed to the State Pardons Board to free her husband from prison before Christmas.

Mrs. Frances Sebastian of nearby Kennedy Twp. told the board Friday:

"It's difficult to keep the children believing that their father is in California. They ask for him."

Dr. Edward H. Sebastian, 35, has been serving an 18 to 23-month term in the workhouse since July. The former University of Pittsburgh instructor was convicted of trying to bribe two Pitt cagers, John Fridley and Dick Falenski, to shave points during the 1959-60 season.

In another case before the pardons board, the one-time co-manager of former heavyweight boxer champ Ezzard Charles has asked for pardons on his 1938 and 1939 gambling convictions.

Tom Tannas, now a variety store owner in nearby Arnold, was fined $25 on one conviction and ordered to pay prosecution costs on the other.

Decisions on both cases will be handed down later.

CONFLICTING IDEAS CURB CHURCHMEN

By GEORGE CORNELL
Associated Press Religion Writer

NEW DELHI (AP)—Hurry up and get together. Have patience, it takes time.

These were the conflicting impulses at work today in the General Assembly of the World Council of Churches as it sought to clear new paths toward unity of Christendom.

In part the emphasis on haste stemmed from the younger churches in frontier areas, while the insistence on restraint and careful deliberation was the voice of ecclesiastical elders.

Both views were relayed Friday night to the 198 representatives of Protestant, Orthodox and Old Catholic denominations from around the globe by the Church of England.

CAN'T HURRY TRUTH
"Just as the way of holiness cannot be hurried and the way of truth cannot be hurried so, too, there is concerning unity, a divine patience," said the Most Reverend Arthur M. Ramsey, archbishop of Canterbury.

He said that some Western churchmen took the attitude that "we need just a few simple facts and principles in order to get unity."

"Beware of them," the archbishop said. "It is not just unity, togetherness with one another we seek. It is for unity in truth and holiness that we work and pray. Let that always be made clear."

The Rev. Philip Potter of London, chairman of the Worldwide Youth Federation, said the hesitancy of splintered Christianity to close ranks has created a "perilous situation."

"We are in serious danger of driving young people into despair of the churches and therefore into flight away from them," he said. "This is not a matter of youthful impetuosity and ignorance."

"It is the clear-eyed, agonizing realization that the churches are not willing to manifest the unity, which is not only given in Christ, but which is given here and now, in so much about which there is definite agreement," he said.

Masked Bandits Loot Bank Of $5,400

WASHINGTON, Pa. (AP)—Two masked bandits, one brandishing a gun, held up the Donaldson's Crossroads Branch of the Bridgeville National Bank just before it closed Friday night and fled with $5,400 in cash.

Theodore Daniels, manager of the bank, and two woman employees were in the bank when the bandits entered.

Daniels quoted one of the men as saying:

"Lay down on the floor and you won't get shot!"

Daniels said one of the men entered the open vault and filled a sack with money and then both fled.

The bank is located on Route 19 in Peters Twp., about halfway between Washington and Mt. Lebanon.

HOPE TEETH, BONES SOLVE OLD MYSTERY

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A handful of teeth and a few bones formed the latest chapter today in the mysterious 1937 disappearance of Amelia Earhart, the world's best-known woman flier.

Fred Goerner, 36, a newsman for radio station KCBS here, told a news conference Friday that he had found a shallow grave in the jungle of Saipan Island that contained bones and 37 human teeth.

"We are not sure these are the remains of Amelia Earhart and Fred Noonan," Goerner said, "but Dr. Theodore D. McCown, professor of anthropology at the University of California at Berkeley, has agreed to study them."

Miss Earhart and Noonan, her navigator, were on a flight around the world when she disappeared July 2, 1937.

HALLOW GRAVE
The last word from her was a radio message: "Have one-half hour fuel and no landfall." She was near tiny Howland Island at the time, some 1,600 miles from Hawaii.

Goerner said Cmdr. Paul Bridwell, Saipan's naval commandant, had offered the theory that Miss Earhart and Noonan were forced down in the Marshalls, then taken by the Japanese to Saipan, where they were imprisoned.

Goerner said the bodies had been buried in Japanese style, only two feet deep.

Thomas E. Devine, a West Haven, Conn., businessman, was a soldier stationed in Saipan in 1944-45. Goerner said Devine told him a native woman had pointed out the shallow grave to him.

Years later, he told Goerner of the incident and that information led him to the grave.

Goerner said the remains were of a man and a woman and, "from teeth uncovered, doctors indicated they were Caucasians and quite possibly those of Miss Earhart and Noonan."

23 INMATES FLEE SCHOOL
TAFT, Okla. (AP) — Twenty-three incorrigible inmates, wielding kitchen knives and ice picks, escaped from the state training school for Negro girls Friday night.

Mrs. Ruby Stanback, the superintendent, said six of the teenage girls surrendered shortly afterward because of the cold. They were unarmed.

W. J. Edge, a highway patrolman, said the escapees that were considered most dangerous remained at large.

Mrs. Stanback said the escapees used broom handles to break lights in their second-floor quarters. When two supervisors tried to stop them, the inmates brushed aside the matrons, screaming "let's go."

They made for the kitchen and grabbed knives, forks and ice picks. They fled the home through the kitchen windows, which have no bars.

The superintendent said the girls apparently had planned the escape. A key to the electrical box had been missing since Thursday. They turned off lights at the institution before leaving.

There were 53 girls in the correctional institution, ranging in age from 11 to 17. Mrs. Stanback said those who fled were incorrigibles who had made trouble at the institution before.

A Bit Of History About Early Settlers

By B. F. M. MacPHERSON
MORE "LOW DUTCH" GENEALOGY

The genealogical data on the Houghtelin family, of the Low Dutch Settlement of the Conewago, from the files of the "Adams Centinel" is continued at this time.

26. Monday, March 24, 1856 — "Died March 9, 1856, Mr. John C. Houghtelin, of Butler Township, this County, aged 43 years, 11 months, and 17 days."

Note:—An unknown branch of the Houghtelin family tree but undoubtedly a member of the family who emigrated from New Jersey to Pennsylvania before the Revolutionary War. The burial place of John C. Houghtelin is not known with any degree of certainty but it is quite possible that he is interred in the "Lower" Dutch Reformed Churchyard in an unmarked grave.

This concludes, for the present at least, the notes on the Houghtelin family.

Buried in the first row (facing the Low Dutch Road) of the "Lower" Dutch Churchyard are members of the Conover family. Two of the graves are marked although one of the stones is broken. Several other graves, apparently in the same plot, are designated by field stones without inscriptions.

These notes will be continued next week.

They were supported in the exercise by atomic-capable and conventional artillery and other combat and logistical support elements of V Corps.

Jenkins, son of George Jenkins, R. 3, was last stationed at Fort Benning, Ga., and arrived overseas in August. His mother, Mrs. Bessie M. Strouse, lives at 42 Simone Ave., Shelby, O.

Scranton Not In Governor's Race
SCRANTON, Pa. (AP)—U.S. Rep. William Scranton, saying he wants to devote himself full time to representing his district in Congress, has ruled out the possibility of running for the Republican nomination for senator or governor.

The 44-year-old Scranton ended months of speculation about his availability for a statewide campaign with an announcement Friday.

"Every indication points to a splendid Republican victory in 1962," he said in a prepared statement.

He added, however, that a victory will mean a hard-fought campaign carried to every corner of the state by the candidates.

GIRL RECOVERS SIGHT, CALLED A MIRACLE

SHERWOOD, Tenn. (AP)—"It was a miracle," said The Rev. Joseph Huske, "I know it."

That was his explanation of how 4-year-old Margaret Jackson suddenly found vision after three months of blindness in this Cumberland Valley town about 75 miles southeast of Nashville.

Doctors who handled the case were unavailable for comment. But Margaret could see again and laugh with the other children, her brown eyes sparkling, her pug nose full of tiny wrinkles.

The story came to light recently when a Nashville Tennessee staff writer, Rudy Abramson, learned of Margaret's recovery. He came to Sherwood to interview Margaret and Father Huske.

HAD LITTLE HOPE
The little girl became ill and went blind two years ago. She was taken to Vanderbilt Hospital in Nashville and examined for weeks. Several doctors thought the blindness was caused by lead poisoning. Few gave her parents, Johnny and Charlotte Jackson, any hope she would ever see again.

In time she returned to Sherwood and to the Epiphany Episcopal Mission where her father, a self-taught electrician, carpenter and mason, worked with Father Huske.

"Almost every time I went into the church, Johnny or Charlotte would be there," Father Huske said. "Sometimes both of them would be there with Margaret saying their prayers."

BECAME ILL AGAIN
The Jacksons were still praying the following October when the leaves on the mountains around Sherwood started turning. Then one night Margaret became ill again, showing the same symptoms she had just before she lost her sight.

The girl was rushed to Vanderbilt Hospital a second time. But she was feeling better when she arrived and the doctors could find nothing wrong.

Back home once more, Johnny started to light a cigarette and Margaret grabbed for the match. The cigarette was forgotten. Johnny threw his arms around his small daughter and then began striking more matches.

"Every time, she would reach for them," he said. "After that, her sight gradually came back. Her left eye is a little weak now, but she doesn't even need glasses."

The three Jacksons have left Sherwood. Johnny was called into the Army and his wife and daughter recently went to join him at Ft. Polk, La.

But Margaret's "miracle" will never be forgotten by people in these parts.

Old Maryland Mill Levelled By Blaze
Fire of undetermined origin destroyed the Old Bowman's Mill on Merkle Rd., near Union Mills, Thursday night as 95 firemen from Littlestown, Westminster, Reese and Pleasant Valley battled the blaze for several hours.

Frank Welty, who lived on the property, was overcome by smoke and taken to the Carroll County General Hospital in the Westminster Fire Department ambulance.

The old mill and the house adjoining were reported by firemen to belong to Floyd Gamber, Westminster.

Terry Jo May Go Home To Green Bay
MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Terry Jo Duperrault probably will go home to Green Bay, Wis., the middle of next week.

Dr. Franklin Verdon, physician to the 11-year-old girl who survived the sinking of the ketch Bluebell Nov. 12 and was picked up 3½ days later, said Terry Jo probably would go home with her aunt, Mrs. Ralph Scheer, and uncle, Fred Duperrault.

Terry Jo walked around her hospital room Friday for the first time, with the help of nurses, and her condition was improving rapidly. She still was not allowed visitors.

Coast Guard investigators studied the sinking of the 60-foot ketch, which claimed the lives of Terry Jo's family and the wife of the skipper.

Altland, 27, Gettysburg high school and college graduate and son of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Altland, now of York but formerly of Gettysburg, was killed in action November 6 in Korea, according to a Defense Department telegram received by the parents Sunday night.

The Altland family lived in Gettysburg for the last 12 years but on October 1 moved to York, their former home, where they now reside at 907 South Queen Street.

Police Are Probing Mysterious Blast: A "mystery" explosion which shook windows in Gettysburg about 10:25 o'clock Tuesday night and alarmed residents of the north end of town was under investigation by borough police today.

Police said they traced the explosion Tuesday night to the vicinity of the new chapel at Gettysburg college. They said the blast was followed by considered able smoke and a smell which indicated that it might have been a dynamite blast.

THE LAST LAP

Starts are always easy. And for a considerable time a good pace may be kept up. But it's the last lap that counts for most. It isn't what we put into a bank but what we leave there that piles up interest and increases the principal.

The last lap is the extra dividend that life gives to him who has trained well, lived well and who has refused to be beaten.

I once saw an exciting automobile race in which two men strove for the winning lap. They went mile after mile neck and neck. Then something happened. Through a blunder, one driver lost a lap.

But soon he who had lost gained mile after mile until he had but one lap to make up. The crowd rose to its feet as this plucky driver swept past his rival during the last spurt—to win!

It was the last lap that gave him his victory and which won for him the coveted honor.

Life must be lived as evenly as possible if we would be steered for the last lap.

Everything doesn't have to be done today. But as much as possible must be done today and that in a way as well as you know. The rest will take care of itself.

The little things you do today which seem so irksome may be the very things that later will make it possible for you to take the last lap gloriously.

Honor the little things and be patient. Remember the last lap. Let nothing take that from you as the thing that belongs to you.

THE BUSY MAN

The busy man must rush along. He has no time to stay. No time to stop to hear the things his neighbors have to say. He can't afford to waste an hour on profitless affairs. His minutes are all precious things and few of them he spares. He's building up a business, and on that he's so intent. No visitor can get to him unless on business bent.

I'd like to tell that busy man so much on business bent, That he could be a kindly man and never lose a cent. I'd like to stop him just for once and whisper to him this: "The time you spend in friendliness is time you'll never miss. Success is not in what you gain, dispute it though you may, You build your fortune on this earth by what you give away."

"You think you're busy! and you are, but when the game is played You'll wish somewhere along the way to help a friend you'd stayed. You'll wish you'd spent a little time to smooth another's way."

Had stopped to give a helping hand, a cheering word to say; For you will learn when it's too late that men as rich as you Found time to win the world's respect and build a business, too.

TWO IN RACE FOR LAUNCH IN ORBIT FLIGHT

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—Lt. Col. John H. Glenn Jr. and Lt. Comdr. Malcolm S. Carpenter are running neck-and-neck in the race for the job of prime astronaut in America's first manned orbital flight, informed sources said today.

Cmdr. Alan B. Shepard Jr. definitely is out of the race, the sources said. Shepard rode the first Redstone rocket on a 300-mile suborbital trip last May 5. Glenn, a Marine, was backup astronaut for Shepard and Capt. Virgil I. Grissom on their suborbital flights.

The American Broadcasting Co. reported Thursday that Glenn had been designated as prime astronaut for the first manned orbital flight. The network said Carpenter had been chosen as backup astronaut.

Sources at Cape Canaveral said Robert R. Gilruth, Project Mercury director, is expected to name the prime astronaut and his backup after an expected launching next week of a chimpanzee in a three-orbit mission, unless the chimp shot is an outright failure.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration is urgently striving for a manned orbital shot before the end of this year.

Man Eats $83 Worth Of Money

NEW YORK (AP)—Gerard Murray had "lettuce" for his Thanksgiving Day dinner—83 dollars' worth.

Murray, 21, was hauled into a Brooklyn court Thursday and accused of assaulting a policeman. He was booked on charges of simple assault and malicious mischief.

As per custom, the prisoner's personal belongings were being taken from him.

Murray balked and cried, "You're not going to get my money."

With that, he began stuffing 10's and one dollar bills into his mouth. When Murray finished chewing the bills, a patrolman gave him a glass of water for a chaser.

Maj. Gen. Russel P. Hartle, 72, of Hagerstown, Md., died in Walter Reed Medical Center here Thursday. He had been hospitalized earlier this year at Brooke Army Medical Center in San Antonio, Tex., after surgery for a blood clot.

A veteran of 36 years in the Army, Hartle was given command of the 34th National Guard Division shortly after Pearl Harbor. It was the first Army unit to leave for Europe.

He is survived by his widow and three sisters. Funeral services and burial are scheduled for Monday in Hagerstown.

DAWSONVILLE, Ga. (AP)—Sheriff Rufus Talley reported a prisoner escaped by cutting a hole in the jail's tin roof with a can opener. The sheriff found the can opener beside the hole in the roof Thursday but the prisoner—J. W. Weatherow, held on burglary charges—still is missing. Officers don't know where he got the can opener.

A Lovelier You

By MARY SUE MILLER
EVENING ENCHANTMENT
For lovelies with a large evening in view, here are five little make-up tricks—little in the effort sense, but tremendous in the glamour department:
● To refresh your complexion, apply a moisture mask. New ones, after filming the skin for only ten minutes, lift off to uncover a glowing ace.

● As night lights fade make-up colors, step up your cosmetic shades. For night-light radiance you need a warmer — pinker — foundation than for daylight, and also a richer shade of lipstick. In powder, what's wanted is the luminous "no color" variety. Such powder provides a translucent finish, like light diffused through gauze. Moreover, repeated applications will not muddy foundation colors.

● For convenience, no-color powders are now available in both pressed and loose form. Generally speaking, a loose powder best suits a lined skin. Several light dustings very effectively soften wrinkles.

● Via an eyelash curler, give your lashes a come-hither up-sweep. First turn up the entire length by adjusting the curler midway between lid and lash tips. Then curl just the tips at the outer ends.

● Increase the luxuriance of your lashes with two applications of mascara. Simply mascara the top side, let it dry, then color the underside.

● The eyes gain magnitude when the movable lids are lined with a pale shadow. For sheer drama, wing the new flesh-pink shadow on the upper lids.

THE EYES OF YOUTH
You are not lost to youthful beauty because of dark circles, puffiness, or wrinkles around the eyes. These problems can be brought under control by proper skin care, cosmetic applications, health habits and facial expressions. Methods are detailed in my leaflet, THE EYES OF YOUTH. To obtain your copy, write me: A Lovelier You, Box 158, The Gettysburg Times, Dundee, Ill., enclosing 10 cents in coin and a large, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Lectern Blaze Work Of Devil

WASHINGTON (AP)—Remember the smoke that curled from the lectern while Richard Cardinal Cushing of Boston delivered the invocation at President Kennedy's inaugural last January?

"That was the devil asking for equal time," a letter-writer suggested to the cardinal later. The Boston archbishop told the story in remarks prefacing his sermon at the annual Pan-American Mass here Thursday.

He said most people who commented on the invocation thought it was too long. It ran more than 10 minutes.

Four clergymen participated in the inaugural, "I thought I was the only one," said the cardinal. "Why they had to have four of us there praying for him, I don't know."

ROCHESTER IS LEADING AHL

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Dick Gamble's prolific scoring—three goals and an assist—has moved the streaking Rochester Americans into sole possession of the Western Division lead in the American Hockey League.

The Americans, who have won six of their last seven games, beat Quebec 4-2 in the only league action tonight—Providence at Cleveland, Buffalo at Hershey and Rochester at Springfield.

Gamble had a hand in all four Rochester goals, scoring the first three and assisting on the last one. He put the Americans ahead 1-0 midway through the first period, but goals by Claude LaBrosse and Mike LaBadie gave Quebec the advantage, 2-1, in the second.

Gamble then blasted in two goals in a 27-second span and gave the Americans the lead that stood. He tallied at 10:37 and 11:04, and assisted on Alex Faulkner's third period tally.

GARY, Ind. (AP)—Police held a Gary couple Friday in the fatal beating of the woman's 3-year-old daughter.

Louise Smith, 30, and her husband, Edward Smith, 22, were booked Thursday for investigation of homicide after officers found the badly beaten body of Vanessa Ann Savage, Mrs. Smith's daughter by an earlier marriage.

Police Sgt. Joseph Walker said the girl's body was covered with welts and bruises.

He said the mother explained the girl had been beaten in an effort to break her of certain childish habits.

and he celebrated with a Thanksgiving feast at the home of a granddaughter, Mrs. Virgil Shaver.

It was found abandoned two hours later on a nearby residential street.

TWO DOUBLE FATALITIES IN PENNSYLVANIA

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Two double fatalities have pushed Pennsylvania's traffic death toll to eight since the start of the long Thanksgiving holiday weekend.

A railroad car killed another man and a small child suffocated, making the overall toll 10 since the start of the tabulating period at 6 p.m. Wednesday.

The weekend runs until midnight Sunday, for tabulating purposes.

Two Philadelphians were killed Thanksgiving Day when their car crashed into an abutment in Upper Dublin Township, Montgomery County, Joseph H. Winterburg Jr., 23, the driver, died in the crash while a passenger, John J. Dougherty, 19, died several hours later in a hospital.

2-CAR CRASH

A two-car crash on Route 487 near Red Rock in McKean County killed Mrs. Anna Sponseller Barnes, 31, and her 15-month-old son, James, Wednesday night.

Veraldo Curtaccio, 34, of Ellwood city, was killed Wednesday night by a railroad car at the Babcock and Wilcox plant in Beaver Falls.

In another nontraffic fatality, reported by police, a plastic cover from a teddy bear suffocated Denise Jean Muz, 3½ months old, of Philadelphia, Thursday night, as her parents were eating Thanksgiving dinner.

OTHER VICTIMS

Hazleton — Mrs. Mildred Casano, 67, killed by a car while crossing a Hazleton street near her home Wednesday night.

Philadelphia — Levin Cohen, 20, Philadelphia, killed Thursday when an auto ran out of control and struck him.

Nanticoke — Jane Goodman, 16, West Nanticoke, killed in Nanticoke Thursday when the car in which she was riding crashed into a utility pole.

Pittston — Mrs. Anna Gardner, 54, of Philadelphia, killed Thursday when the car her husband was driving overturned at the Wyoming Valley interchange of the Northeast Extension of the Pennsylvania Turnpike.

Cop Loses Auto Writing Ticket

GOODLAND, Kan. (AP)—While writing out a traffic ticket in downtown Goodland Wednesday night, policeman Keith Nagel had his car stolen.

Nagel had alighted from his car, leaving the motor running, to write out the summons. While he was so engaged, someone drove off with the police car.

It was found abandoned two hours later on a nearby residential street.

Sees Loophole In Sunday Blue Law

PITTSBURGH (AP)—A lawyer feels that a lot of supermarkets may be able to operate on Sundays even though a new state law bans Sunday food sales by stores with 10 or more employees.

Atty. Walter A. Koegler of Pittsburgh said the new law is vague, but he believes most of the stores he represents will be exempt under certain provisions of the measure.

Koegler obtained a temporary restraining order from U. S. District Court here on Oct. 26, banning enforcement of the new law at 21 supermarkets in eight western Pennsylvania counties.

But a panel of three federal judges lifted the order last Tuesday and ruled that the state courts have sole jurisdiction.

2 YOUNG BOYS PERISH IN FIRE

OWEGO, N.Y. (AP)—A fire that destroyed a farm home claimed the lives of two young boys who had planned to share a Thanksgiving Day dinner with their grandparents.

Frank Carman, 6, perished in a bed during the early-morning fire Wednesday. His brother, Richard, 8, died at a Waverly hospital seven hours later.

Their grandfather, Frank Carman, 40, cut his hand as he broke several windows to save his wife, Lena, 38, three stepsons and the boys' sister.

Carman said he discovered the living room ablaze in the one-story, frame house about 3:30 m. 2½ hours after his wife had stoked a wood-burning stove in the room.

The fire apparently was caused by overheating of the stove, Tioga County deputy sheriffs said Carman told them.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP)—Col. Jesse M. Hamby had a very special Thanksgiving dinner guest—a petite Frenchwoman who helped him escape from behind enemy lines during World War II.

The guest, Mme. Henri Tarbes, is in this country visiting some of the Americans she helped to freedom during the war.

HARRISBURG (AP)—Gov. Lawrence has scheduled a visit to Lewistown next week for an electronics plant dedication.

FOSS, WISMER FEUD BLOWS UP TO SHOWDOWN

NEW YORK (AP)—The verbal battle featuring American Football League Commissioner Joe Foss and Harry Wismer, president of the New York Titans, simmered to a slow boil today but gave indications it may bubble over again.

Foss said he planned to call a meeting of the eight league directors and demand the ouster of Wismer, which he said he was empowered to do under the league by-laws.

Wismer, in Washington, continued to voice his defiance of the commissioner, but his attitude softened a bit from earlier demands the league get a new commissioner.

FOSS HAS SUPPORT

"This is an intolerable situation," Foss said Friday. "I have talked to some of the directors—not all of them—and I can assure you I have support."

"Under our by-laws, approval of three-fourths of the directors can force a franchise change where a condition exists detrimental to the league. There is no doubt that such a condition is present in the case of Wismer," he said.

Foss, a former governor of South Dakota and Congressional Medal of Honor winner as a World War II Marine pilot, said he didn't know whether he would take up the Wismer matter at the Dec. 2 draft meeting or try to get the directors together earlier.

The feud, threatening to blow a big hole in the struggling, two-year-old league, was precipitated by disclosure of a secret telephone draft of college players, contrary to an agreement with the College Football Coaches Association that no players be contacted before the end of the season.

Foss said he did not know the draft had been held until it was disclosed in newspaper reports, and he ordered it nullified.

Wismer accused him of knowing of the draft and pleading ignorance. Wismer originally indicated he would defy the order nullifying the draft, but softened the position Friday.

"Our office only today received the commissioner's directive that the draft be nullified," he said. "Until now we had received no such orders. I will abide by the directive."

ONCE ACCUSED SPY IS AIDE TO COLOMBIA, S.A.

WASHINGTON (AP)—A former White House assistant, who a decade ago figured in congressional investigations of Communist activity in the U.S. government, now is an economic adviser to the government of Colombia.

But both the State Department and the Colombian Embassy said Friday the one-time assistant, Lauchlin Currie, has nothing to do with supplying U.S. foreign aid money in the Latin-American nation.

Currie, 59, a Canadian-born economist and former Harvard professor, was one of Franklin D. Roosevelt's administrative assistants from 1939 to 1945.

In 1948 Elizabeth Bentley, confessed Soviet spy courier, said he was one of several government employees who fed the spy ring secret U.S. information. Two weeks later Currie appeared before the senate expenditures committee and vigorously denied her accusation.

Currie moved to Colombia in 1951. He has drawn up an overall economic development program for Colombia, which has not been accepted by the government. He also served as an adviser in a development plan for the Magdalena region.

An embassy spokesman said he had worked under contract with the Colombian government for several studies.

Cage League To Meet On Monday

A meeting of team captains of League, sponsored by the Recreation Department, will be held Monday evening at 7 o'clock in the recreation office at Gettysburg High School, it was announced today by Lee Raffensperger, director.

The league, for teams within the Gettysburg School District, now has five teams, the Faculty, Zorros, Jaycees, Del Roccas and Seminary. Monday's meeting will present the last opportunity for any other team to enter.

Monday, December 4, has been set for the opening of the league.

HOUSTON EYES BIGGER LEAD

Houston hosts Denver Sunday hoping to put daylight between itself and Boston in the tight Eastern Division race of the American Football League.

The Oilers are one-half game ahead and a victory over Denver would give them a full game bulge as the teams drew even in number of games played.

Boston rests this week with a 6-4 record compared to Houston's 6-3-1.

New York pulled within a half-game of Boston Thursday when it beat out Buffalo 21-14. Buffalo fell 2½ games behind leading Houston and appears out of the race since it has only two games to go.

Oakland plays at Dallas Sunday in a so-called game. They have been in a hot contest to see which could lose the most games and Oakland is a step ahead at the moment. But a victory over Dallas would put the Raiders even with the Texans, each then boasting a 3-8 record.

Denver may take over the losing championship since it is 3-8 and a loss to Houston would give it a definite margin.

San Diego, unbeaten leader and champion of the Western Division, takes the week off.

1961 COLLEGE GRID SEASON TO END TODAY

By JACK CLARY
Associated Press Sports Writer

The 1961 college football season plays its last full day today with most of the interest centered on the still-clouded bowl picture, despite the five major conference titles at stake.

But along with the conference titles—in the Ivy League, Big Ten, Big Eight, Southwest and Big Five conferences—almost automatically go the post-season bids. Only the Ivys play for the record, with Princeton and Harvard bidding to the Columbia for a share of the crown.

EYE ROSE BOWL

Ohio State and Minnesota, ranked 2-3 in the current Associated Press poll, both vie for the Big Ten crown and what suddenly looks like a trip to the Rose Bowl. The Buckeyes, with a 7-0-1 record and 4-0 in Big Ten play, meet Michigan in a game that will be televised regionally—ABC. Minnesota, also hoping for a repeat of last year's national championship, meet Wisconsin. The Gophers are 7-1 and 5-0 in the conference.

Alabama, the No. 1 team, is idle until its game against Auburn next week.

Arkansas, ranked seventh, may make it into the Sugar Bowl if it beats Texas Tech. A victory also will give the Razorbacks a share of the Southwest Conference title with Texas, which ended its season on Thanksgiving Day by beating Texas A&M and grabbing the host spot in the Cotton Bowl.

LSU VS. TULANE

Louisiana State plays Tulane and then will decide on an Orange Bowl bid. Colorado, aiming for a date in the Orange Bowl, can clinch the Big Eight title by beating Nebraska, and force Kansas or Missouri to go elsewhere now that the conference has relaxed its rules on post-season play. The latter two also meet, with the winner good for a spot in the Liberty, Bluebonnet or Gotham Bowls.

The Rose Bowl host will be chosen on the outcome of the UCLA-Southern California game, as will the Big Five title. UCLA must win to go to the New Year's Day affair.

In the Ivy League, Harvard has to beat Yale in the Game, and Princeton must get by Dartmouth to tie. Columbia, already finished its league schedule, plays unbeaten Rutgers, 8-0.

OTHER GAMES

In the other games involving the nation's top teams, Mississippi, probably Texas' opponent in the Cotton Bowl, meets Mississippi State while Michigan State plays a meaningless Big Ten game against Illinois.

Miami (Fla.) took a big step toward a bowl bid Friday night in a 10-6 victory over Northwestern with Liberty and Gotham Bowl scouts looking on.

Maryland must beat Virginia to get into the Gator Bowl against Georgia Tech. Scouts also will be parked in stadiums watching Auburn meet Florida, Penn State play Pitt and Rice take on TCU.

MAN'S BODY FOUND IN CAR

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP)—The bound body of a door-to-door salesman was found by police in the back of his parked automobile on the city's East Side Friday night.

The victim was identified by a neighbor as Samuel Yochelson, 46, of Buffalo.

The cause of death was not immediately determined.

Yochelson's face was battered, and his hands and feet were bound with electrical wire, police said. Blood was found on both the front and back seats of the car.

The victim's wife said he customarily carried "several hundred dollars" with him because of the nature of his occupation. No money was found on the body.

Yochelson had last been heard from by his wife when he left for work Friday morning.

Two policemen investigating Yochelson's car, the only one parked on the street, during a routine cruise of the area.

In a suburb of Rochester Thursday, the charred body of a strangulation victim was found by a man and his son in a hunting area. The victim was found with rope around his neck and his hands bound by wire, and he was so badly burned that his identity was obscured.

BROWNS HOPE FOR BREAKS IN GIANT BATTLE

By ROBERT MOORE
Associated Press Sports Writer

Cleveland Coach Paul Brown says the Browns "might have a chance if we are at our best" in their now-or-never National Football League game with the New York Giants in Cleveland Sunday.

"The record shows that the Giants have the strongest defense in the league," said Brown. "They also have an outstanding offense, which compounds our problem, thanks to Y. A. Tittle, Del Shofner and others who have been added to an already sturdy group."

"Everybody here has a realization of the kind of team we face." Of Cleveland's rousing 45-24 victory a week ago over the Eastern Conference's defending champion Philadelphia Eagles, Brown grinned.

"The Giants probably softened the Eagles up for us."

GIANTS IN LEAD
New York had routed Philadelphia a week earlier 38-21. The turn of events the past two Sundays left the Giants (6-2) with a full-game lead over the Browns, tied for second with 7-3 records.

While the Eastern contenders are busy, the Green Bay Packers will be able to sit back and gloat over their 2½-game Western Conference advantage. The Packers (9-2) came within one game of nailing down the Western title by stopping the Lions 17-9 in the Thanksgiving Day mud at Detroit.

Only the Lions (6-4-1) and the San Francisco 49ers (5-4-1) have more than a mathematical chance of overhauling the Packers.

The 49ers can remain in the running at least another week if they can beat Minnesota's Vikings (2-8) in San Francisco Sunday.

Sunday's other games aren't expected to mean a thing as far as championship matters are concerned. The Los Angeles Rams (3-7) invade Chicago (5-5); the St. Louis Cardinals (4-6) face the Steelers in Pittsburgh (4-6) and the Baltimore Colts (5-5) travel to Washington (0-9-1).

Kansas City Has Four-Game Lead

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The stampeding Kansas City Steers have opened up a four-game lead in the Western Division of the young American Basketball League.

The Steers, who lost two of their first three games, now have won eight in a row, the last a 121-108 rout of Los Angeles Friday night. It put the second-place Jets four games back.

In the other games, San Francisco edged Washington 95-92 and Hawaii lost its 10th in a row, this one to Chicago 94-84.

Kansas City used a 36-point second quarter to forge a 63-48 halftime lead and put it out of reach.

Gene Brown's two field goals in the last minute to play pulled out San Francisco's narrow verdict over Washington.

BAHAMA BOXES FARO SALIM ON TV TONIGHT

By MURRAY ROSE
Associated Press Sports Writer

Yama Bahama, the clever boxer from Bimini, has the reputation of being the spoiler of the middleweight division. That does not bother Farid Salim, the Argentine middleweight champion, who thinks he will decisively beat Bahama in their 10-rounder at Madison Square Garden tonight.

Salim, winner of seven straight, is an 8-5 favorite to win the television fight—ABC-TV 10 p.m., EST.

"I know he has the reputation of making an opponent look bad," said Salim. "But I plan to crowd him and make him fight. I can hit faster and harder than he."

SALIM BETTING CHOICE

Although he ranks lower than the Bimini battler, Salim has been made the betting choice on the strength of his impressive victory over Teddy Wright in his U.S. debut at the Garden last month. Wright held Bahama to a draw earlier in the year.

Salim, at 6-1, is one of the tallest fighters around outside of the heavyweight and light heavyweight ranks. The 25-year-old Latin-American has a 32-1 (plus 2 draws) record including 14 knockouts. He dropped his first decision to Mario Tarzetti in Argentina last January but beat his conqueror in a return.

Bahama, whose real name is William Butler, has a 68-12-3 record, including 22 knockouts. The 28-year-old counterpuncher is ranked seventh by Ring and ninth by the NABA. Salim is ranked tenth by Ring and is not ranked by the NABA, a sorepoint with him.

Taprooms Open Longer Tonight

HARRISBURG (AP)—Starting tonight taprooms will be allowed to stay open until 2 a.m., Sunday instead of midnight Saturday as in years past.

The 1961 legislature passed a bill which Gov. Lawrence signed into law permitting the sale of liquor for an additional two hours on Saturday night.

However, through a legislative oversight, the 1,075 licensees authorized to sell beer only were not included in the bill and these taprooms, as before, must close at midnight Saturday.

Lawrence signed the law Sept. 19. It does not affect clubs which are allowed to sell liquor until 3 a.m. While the new law officially became effective last Sunday, this is the first time it will have an effect on taproom sales.

There are 16,500 liquor licensees across the state.

UPPER DARRY, Pa. (AP)—A 70-year-old man, who police said has a record as a pickpocket dating to 1929, was arrested here Friday—on a pickpocket charge.

Police said Frank Campi took a wallet from the pocket of Galen Maybee, of Crum Lynne, in the Red Arrow bus terminal. Maybee caught the man after a chase, police said.

18 CARS DERAILED

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Eighteen cars of a 71 car Reading Railroad freight train were derailed early today, at the Reading's terminal in nearby Olney.

A railroad spokesman said no one was hurt, but damage was extensive.

The spokesman said it was believed a defective brake rigging had fallen from the lead car onto the rails, as the Jersey City bound train neared the station.

Dairymen Warned To Do Everything Possible To "Eliminate Hand Labor"

By FRANK S. ZETTLER
Adams County Farm Agent

Some revolutionary pieces of equipment are catching the farmer's eye, because they help reduce physical labor. In Pennsylvania, as well as in other parts of the United States, many dairymen are thinking seriously, and wondering about the new milk conveying systems. No matter whether they are called dumping stations, pumping stations, milk conveyors, transfer systems, milk transfers, or milk transports, any one of them, if used, will bring relief from the time-consuming and back-breaking task of carrying milk.

What are these devices? These pieces of equipment are designed so that completion of milking with the regular milking machine equipment, the milk is carried a short distance to a strainer-collector unit. These containers are generally mobile. The unit is a stainless steel holding tank with a strainer over the top. The strainer is covered by a lid, which can be opened and closed by a lever. When the lever is pressed, the lid comes up, the milk from the milking machine pail can be dumped into the strainer, and the milk then flows into the collector unit.

TO MILK HOUSE

Milk is removed through glass, steel or flexible tubing by a pump, or by vacuum into the milk house.

Milk collected in large containers may also be moved down a track by electricity, or manually pushed into the milk house.

These conveyor systems are here to stay, but they should be thought of as just a stepping stone. It is still vitally necessary and expedient for all dairymen to realize that they must eliminate hand labor from the dairy industry. Milking parlors or rooms conventional barns equipped with pipeline milkers or conveyor systems all will play a part in the job of removing 6.7 billion pounds of milk per year from the dairy barns to milk houses in Pennsylvania.

KEEP PIPELINES OPEN

No hot coffee for breakfast, no water in the milk house, and the kids late for school! Did this ever happen to you? There's nothing more aggravating than to wake up to late on a cold frosty morning and find the water lines are frozen.

That's why now is a good time to check pipes which are exposed to weather. A few minutes work with a shovel before the ground freezes will save a lot of trouble later on. Use pipe insulation to cover a line entering a building in an exposed area. If space inside the building is too cramped, try using electric heating cable. A few turns around the pipe in three inch spirals will prevent freezing to temperatures of about five degrees below zero. A thermostat to control the cable switch will make the protection automatic and save electricity too. Never lengthen or shorten a cable because it will change the heat output and may create a fire hazard. While you are in the mood repair the door to the pump house and replace the broken window panes. A socket for a heat lamp just over the pump may be quite helpful on extremely cold nights when the temperature drops very quickly.

TREAT FENCE POSTS

Fence posts are sure to last 15-20 years after treatment with pentachlorophenol. Treat only posts that take treatment well. Red pine removed as thinnings from plantations are ideal for this purpose.

"Penta or copper naphthenate do the best job for home treating." Good penetration is needed for effective treatment. Using a brush to apply preservative is a waste of time and money.

A three-step treatment is recommended. (1) Remove all bark. (2) Let the posts dry out completely before treating. (3) Immerse them full length in the preservative for 24-48 hours.

Several species resist decay. These include red cedar, black locust, mulberry and osage orange.

Lumber yards and farm supply houses usually carry pressure-treated posts. These will last 30 years or more and will prove to be the best investment for permanent fences. However the creosote prevents future painting, and will stain skin or clothing on contact so these pressure-treated posts are not suitable for all uses.

ADAMS COUNTY PUBLIC LIBRARY

MRS. W. R. SCHUBART

The library is a bright place now with gay mobiles dancing in suspension and Pilgrims and orange cornshocks decorating the walls—all to celebrate Children's Book Week. Although Children's Book Week has been largely superseded in emphasis by National Library Week which comes in the spring, many new books for children have been ordered.

There are five selected by the Junior Literary Guild as outstanding books for boys and girls. They are "The Little Juggler" by Barbara Cooney. Both pictures and story approximate medieval style in this adaptation from the old French legend of the juggler of Notre Dame. "Cheerfully did he tumble, and cheerfully did he serve."

"The Mysterious Christmas Shell" by Eleanor Cameron is a story of suspense for children at about a Sixth Grade level. "The Sacred Jewel" by Nancy Faulkner unfolds the mystery of the Arch Druid's stolen jewel in Britain during the first century. "The Karting Crowd" by James L. Summers is about boys who build karts from lawn mower engines, and then race with them. "What Do You Do, Dear?" is supposed to be a book on proper conduct for the very young. It poses a question like "what do you do in the middle of a birthday party when a hungry dragon comes in" and answers the problem with "Thank your hostess for a lovely time."

OLD FAVORITES

There are new copies of old favorites—"Charlotte's Web," E. B. White's endearing story of Wilbur the pig and his close friend, the spider, Charlotte; "Mike Mulligan and His Steam Shovel"; "Howard Pyle's Book of Pirates"; "The Adventures of Sherlock Holmes" by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle; "The Scarlet Pimpernel" by Baroness Orczy, about the intrepid group who saved victims from the French guillotine. And there are books by authors who are noted for many successful children's stories, people like Claire Huchet Bishop, Kurt Wiese, Leo Politi, Marjorie Flack, Marcia Brown and Dr. Seuss.

Among the new ones, "Undersea Explorer" will appeal to boys. It is the story of Capt. Costeau, the inventor of the aqua-lung. Girls might like "Nurses, Nurses, Nurses," a collection of stories from books and magazines about heroic efforts in hospitals.

The How and Why Series has published "Man Made Moons" by Marie Neurath. This book is designed for all ages because it explains the space age to children with very clear diagrams and helps parents answer questions too.

Particularly delightful is a book of poetry for young people by John Ciardi. Called "The Reason For the Pelican," it is inscribed "To everyone with an imagination that tickles." One sample begins:

"The reason for the pelican

Is difficult to see,

His beak is clearly larger

Than there's any need to be—"

Another good selection is "The Exploits of Don Quixote" as retold by James Reeves in a way that children may appreciate the Spanish classic.

This collection might well serve as a guide in the choosing of Christmas gifts.

Amvets Plan Two Christmas Parties

Plans for Christmas parties for the Fairfield Cub Scouts and the members of the Amvets were planned Tuesday night at a meeting of the Auxiliary of the Charles J. Gillan Amvets Post in the post home, near Fairfield.

Both Christmas parties will be held in the pavilion at St. Mary's picnic grounds at 7:30 p.m. The party for the Cub Scout pack, which is sponsored by the auxiliary, will be held December 13. The party for the children of the Amvets will be held December 12.

State Public Relations Officer Alice Bushman reported at Tuesday's meeting on a district session at Phillipsburg earlier this month and said the next district meeting will be held January 28 at Fairfield. She also reported on a meeting of the state executive committee of the Amvets Auxiliary held November 18 and 19 at Harrisburg.

Donations of $5 each were voted to the Lebanon Veterans Hospital "Christmas stocking" and to the Fairfield Girl Scouts. The pig-in-a-poke was awarded to Mrs. Mary McClain. The next meeting will be held at the post home December 19, the president, Mrs. Fay Baker, announced.

SILENT SCREEN ACTRESS DIES AT AGE OF 67

NORWALK, Conn. (AP)—Ruth Chatterton, who took a dare at the age of 14 and went on to gain renown on the stage, screen and as a novelist, died in a hospital Friday. She was 67.

Miss Chatterton was hospitalized Tuesday after being stricken with a cerebral hemorrhage as she entertained friends in the large old farmhouse at nearby Redding, Conn., that had been her home for several years.

She had lived alone since the death last year of her third husband, Barry Thompson.

Miss Chatterton made her stage debut in Washington shortly after she attended a matinee with a group of schoolmates.

When she criticized the star's performance, one of her friends challenged her to do a better job. A few days later, Miss Chatterton appeared in the show's chorus.

She was born in New York on Dec. 24, 1893, the daughter of William and Lillian Chatterton.

Miss Chatterton made her New York stage debut in 1911 when she appeared as Iside Brand in "The Great Name."

Some of her later performances were in "The Rainbow," "Daddy Long-Legs," "Come Out of the Kitchen," "A Marriage of Convenience," "Moonlight and Honey," and "Second Best Bed."

Her last Broadway appearance was in "Idiot's Delight," in 1951.

She began her film career in 1928 in "Sins of the Fathers" and later appeared in such movies as "The Doctor's Secret," "Madame X," "The Laughing Lady," "Sarah and Son," and "Dodsworth."

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Will S. Berney, a former New York playwright who moved to California two years ago to write television scripts, died Friday. Berney, 40, was coauthor of "Dark of the Moon," a dramatic legend in verse with music that ran for 320 performances after opening in New York in 1945.

Red Buttons And Wife Separate

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Comedian Red Buttons and his wife of 12 years have separated.

"We haven't seen any attorneys. We don't plan a divorce or even a legal separation," Mrs. Helayne Buttons told a newsman Friday.

"We just have a few things to work out," Mrs. Buttons said. "We believe we probably can do this better apart. Red moved to New York last Wednesday. I will remain in California."

"Red and I love each other. When people have that, I believe they can solve problems that may temporarily affect the happiness of a marriage," she said.

The couple has no children.

JIM HAGERTY'S FATHER DIES

NEW YORK (AP)—James A. Hagerty, 85, a former political reporter for the New York Times and father of James C. Hagerty, press secretary to former President Dwight D. Eisenhower, died Friday in St. Luke's Hospital.

He suffered a coronary attack several days ago.

Hagerty reported politics for the Times from 1920 to his retirement in 1954.

His colleagues called him "Big Jim" until his son entered the newspaper profession. Then he became known as "Old Jim."

A native of Plattsburgh, N. Y., Hagerty cut short his studies at Cornell University to take a job on his home town newspaper.

FIND BODY IN HOUSE RUINS

WASHINGTON, Pa. (AP)—Police are trying to solve the mysterious death of an unidentified man found shot to death in the ruins of an old farm house.

The victim, with four bullet wounds of the head, was found Friday near Taylorstown at an old farm house site, where nothing but the house foundation remains.

Two 13-year-old boys, Donald Cunningham of Taylorstown and Thomas Miller of Avella R. 1, made the discovery while hunting.

Police said the man apparently had been shot by a revolver about two days before. He was six feet tall, weighed 190-200 pounds, had black hair and appeared to be in his 30s.

He was wearing a dark trench coat, white jacket, dark trousers and a grey and white sports shirt.

The body was taken to a Clayville funeral home.

Richard Chamberlain, "Dr. Kildare" Of New TV Series, Made Hospital Tours To Study Mannerisms, Action Of Surgeon

IT TOOK a second try and some major revamping for the famous "Dr. Kildare" story to break into television. Now that the popular motion picture series has made it on television as an hour-long drama each week (Thursdays, 8:30 to 9:30 p.m., E.S.T.) it appears it may very well be as successful as the motion picture series. The TV series has gotten good review, and its rating have been good.

When MGM first attempted to cash in on the story, they made a half-hour pilot with Lew Ayres (the original movie Kildare) playing Kildare 20 years later and a the life of a doctor for a day. He freely admits that he never had been in a hospital as a patient and only once as a visitor. He also states the extent of his knowledge of the sciences was the physiology he took in high school and the geology in college.

So dressed in the green gown that doctors wear, he worked with a Dr. Andros who was an intern at Los Angeles County Hospital.

"CALLED ME DOC"

"The nurses called me 'Doc'," the actor recalled, "and so did the kids. In fact, the youngsters probably thought I was a very things medical.

TALK OF DRAFT

"There was much talk by the doctors about being drafted into the service and about residencies—who got one and who didn't, who's packing, who's leaving and which hospitals are best residency-wise. I was listening so hard I almost forgot to eat."

Having visited the prison ward, Chamberlain said, "It's ridiculous, to see a big husky man with his arms slashed from a knife fight. These fellows, who probably look pretty tough out on the street, look helpless as babies in a hospital."

Richard Chamberlain (Dr. Kildare) and Jan Murray, guest star, in a recent episode of the hospital series seen Thursdays, NBC-TV 8:30-9:30 p.m. younger actor as intern. However, it found no buyers.

The new "Dr. Kildare" series brings to television veteran actor Raymond Massey in the role of Dr. Gillespie, the gruff but understanding man of medicine—the role Lionel Barrymore made so memorable two decades ago. This is the first time that Massey has appeared in a regular TV series. He found the part so attractive that he broke his precedent.

NEWCOMER IN LEAD

In the title role is tall, blond and handsome Richard Chamberlain. Although a comparative newcomer, Chamberlain in the first few episodes has proven an exceptional choice for the role.

Prior to the filming of the pilot, Chamberlain, in the true tradition of the greater artists, attempted to make his portrayal most believable by actually living important doctor because I did no work, just stood aside and looked wise.

"One little guy named Danny—he has a club foot—I, the sweetest little fellow I ever met. Danny doesn't like just anybody, I was told, but he liked Dr. Andros and he liked me. I felt complimented.

"Most children are much more forward than Danny. When the doctor walks into the children's ward, there is tremendous competition for his attention by the kids, at least by all those who are feeling good.

"Time passed so quickly that before I knew it, I was following Dr. Andros into the hospital commissary for lunch. The place was full of doctors, all young, all casually talking with words 4,000 miles long—and joking too—but with the focus almost always on

Chamberlain's rounds ended with visits, more or less uneventful, to the orthopedic and neurosurgery wards. So a second tour had to be scheduled for the piece de resistance—a visit to surgery. For a starter, it was suggested that he watch a baby being born, "but this has to be cleared by 20 million people, so we settled for an ulcer operation, an appendectomy and a stitch job on a knife wound.

"VISIT TO SURGERY"

"They put me back into the greens again for my visit to surgery and even put canvas covers on my shoes. They didn't want me to strike any sparks, they explained, because the anesthetist was working with some very explosive gases.

"Surgery on the stomach ulcer already was in progress when I got there. I was allowed to stand

WEEKLY TELEVISION DIGEST:

The Canadian Broadcasting Corporation celebrated its 25th anniversary this month. Canadian networks today include 64 TV and 133 radio stations . . . Among changes in the Communications Act being sought by the FCC is the authority of the FCC to require painting and lighting of all abandoned towers. It is reported that the FCC would also like to see legislation passed whereby it could prohibit manufacture of devices which radiate excessively.

HOLLYWOOD REPORTER:

Screen Gems may serialize Frank Buck's "Bring 'Em Back Alive" . . . Albie Pearson, top hitter for the Los Angeles Angels baseball team, has been signed by Warner Bros. for his first professional acting job. He'll portray a gangster's bodyguard in a forthcoming "Roaring 20's" episode . . . Has anyone noticed that Sir Cedric Hardwicke has dropped the "Sir" in his billing on the "Mrs. G. Goes to College" program? . . . Did you hear about the TV producer who took his wife to dinner and phoned his secretary with the excuse that he had to work late? . . . Ed Sullivan's Nov. 26 show will emanate from Las Vegas' Moulin Rouge . . . One of the actors who was dropped as a regular on the Joey Bishop show told Hollywood Reporter's TV columnist Hank Grant that his agent told him he was taking the spotlight away from Bishop too much, and that to get rid of him they paid him off for the remainder of his contract, which still had three shows to go . . . The top fee that a guest will be paid on the Perry Como show from now on is $7,500.

MIKE CLIFFORD SET FOR SULLIVAN SHOW:

Mike Clifford,

just beyond the patient's head. Much ado was being made about sterilizing, and the nurse in charge of this seems to have an extreme amount of authority.

"During an operation the surgeon and his staff keep up a running line of chatter—it seems to keep them relaxed—about similar operations and the surgeons who performed them, until they run into a problem. Then they're all business.

SALUTARY CONTRAST

"Thanks to these hospital tours I now feel much more like the doctor I want to portray. Because of them, I feel so much more experienced on our own hospital set—in dealing with patients, in putting on the garments, in handling the instruments and even in making that to-do about sterilization."

With the excessive amount of violence on TV today, "Dr. Kildare" is a welcomed and perhaps a salutary contrast.

18-year-old ballad-singing baritone who made his TV debut on the Ed Sullivan Show last June 11, will make his next appearance on the same program December 3. Clifford made his nightclub debut recently at the Club Elegante, Brooklyn, as headliner. He has also been signed to sing at Blinstrub's, Boston, starting December 11. A further indication of how rapidly Clifford is starting to "move" is that his recently-released record "When We Marry" and "Bombay" has received good reviews and is starting to "take off."

BOB BANNER Associates will produce a pilot film on "Kings of Broadway," half-hour family series, for NBC-TV. The new series, scheduled to go into production in early 1962, concerns the fortunes of "King and Company," a family group performing on the two-a-day vaudeville circuit. It recalls the colorful and nostalgic era of W. C. Fields, Frank Fay, Gallagher and Shean, the four Cohans (including George M.), Eddie Foy and his family and scores of other headline acts.

The series idea was created by Herbert Baker, son of the famous vaudeville star, Belle Baker.

"YOURS FOR A SONG," a tune game show with TV and Broadway musical comedy star Bert Parks as singing host, will make its bow as a Monday-through-Friday series on the ABC-TV Network's daytime program schedule beginning Monday, December 4, 11:30-12 noon EST.

Also, in an unprecedented move by ABC-TV, "Yours for a Song" will be expanded to include Saturday evenings, 7:30-8 p.m. starting January 20. This is the first time that a program has been scheduled both in prime time and daytime before it has premiered.

On the swift-paced songfest which invites the audience to join in the vocalizing, a pair of contestants match their knowledge of popular ballads, old and new. As the orchestra plays, lyrics of a favorite tune, with certain words omitted, flash on a special screen. The contestant, who sings along, is awarded $10 for each missing word he supplies. At the conclusion of every round, the participant who has won the most money meets a new challenger.

NOTHING BUT THE TOOTH: Bob Clayton, host of "Make A Face," tells about the production staffer who arrived at the theater half an hour late.

"What does this mean?" inquired the producer irritated.

"Well, it was like this," explained the latecomer. "I squeezed the tube of toothpaste too much and it took me a good half hour to get the stuff back into the tube."

TOKYO (AP)—A huge advertising balloon broke loose from its mooring atop a Tokyo department store Friday and exploded on an elementary school playground, injuring 29 children.

Actress Sings For Prisoners To Start

There are all sorts of ways to break into show business, but not many performers can say that they started their career singing at holiday parties for prisoners in a state penitentiary. That was the beginning for lovely Louise O'Brien, a former Miss Oklahoma, who will be spotlighted as a vocalist on 14 of this season's "Sing Along With Mitch" sessions over NBC-TV Thursday nights.

Louise, daughter of a gentleman farmer and local politician, got to sing before the prisoners when her dad served for a time as warden. She was called on to entertain at the Thanksgiving and Christmas "specials" for the inmates.

"I can't remember when I didn't want to sing," says Louise. "When I was a little girl on the farm, I used to sing out in the fields and sing and dream about becoming an actress."

Before becoming a semiregular with "Sing Along," Louise graced many other TV shows. Viewers may remember her as Pat Boone's girl on his ABC show. She appeared regularly on Arthur Godfrey's morning show and was a "Today" girl with Dave Garroway.

"Chocolate blackmail . . . I'm being blackmailed and the payoff is the chocolate ice cream!"

moaned Rudy Abel, producer of "National Velvet," on NBC-TV, Mondays (8-8:30 p.m., E.S.T.)

The culprit was Lori Martin's seven-year-old TV brother, Joey Scott, who consumed a full gallon of chocolate ice cream while filming nine retakes of a dinner scene.

"I just couldn't understand why I was having so much trouble with Joey," Abel said. "He is normally one of the steadiest performers of the cast. Very seldom does he blow a line. Yet, this one dinner scene — which was very simple—caused him all sorts of trouble until we were down to our last dish of ice cream. Then, he came through like the little troupier we all knew he was."

Calling a lunch break after finally getting the scene, Abel took Joey to the studio commissary for lunch and sat amazed as the robust youngster packed away two hamburgers, a salad, a glass of milk and topped off the lunch with another dish of chocolate ice cream.

"To forestall any further situations like the one I faced most of the morning," Abel reported, "I called our script department and asked if they would refrain from writing scenes that called for Joey to eat ice cream."
